

RELIEF ROVER ANNOUNCES THE FIRST ANNUAL CLINIC TO 5K VIRTUAL RACE SUPPORTING VETERINARY WELLNESS

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Not One More Vet (NOMV), an organization helping veterinary professionals in crisis.

Bradenton, FL, May 8, 2021 - Relief Rover is excited to announce a virtual "Clinic to 5K" running event the last week of July.

The veterinary profession is amid a mental health crisis and relief vets are an important tool allowing owners and associates to take their hard-earned breaks.

“Our mental health and wellbeing require a sustainable effort. Our profession has responded to the crisis of the last year and now it’s time to have some healthy and relaxing fun” said Relief Rover Founder and CEO, Dr. Cindy Trice.

Ten dollars from every registration will be donated to NOMV. NOMV provides the necessary support to all members of veterinary teams and students who are struggling and considering suicide.

Registrants also have the opportunity to make additional donations to PrideVMC and Stryder Cancer Foundation.

Participants are encouraged to complete the virtual race during a one-week window from July 24 – 31. However, they can run or walk the 5K anytime.

Participants are encouraged to train with friends, form teams, run with their dogs, and share their results and experiences via social media. (Use hashtags #runvetrun, #irunfornomv, and #reliefrover5K. Special bone shaped race bibs are available for canine participants.
