

RELIEF ROVER ANNOUNCES THE SECOND ANNUAL CLINIC TO 5K VIRTUAL RACE SUPPORTING VETERINARY WELLNESS

A portion of the proceeds will be donated to PRIDEVMC, an organization that promotes inclusivity and community by creating a better world for the LGBTQ+ Veterinary Community.

Bradenton, FL, April 29, 2022 - Relief Rover is excited to announce the Second Annual virtual "Clinic to 5K" running/walking event the last week of June.

“Our mental health and wellbeing require a sustainable effort. Last year’s event was a huge success serving as a way for our hardworking veterinary teams to relax and have some healthy fun while supporting the profession.” said Relief Rover Founder and CEO, Dr. Cindy Trice.

Ten dollars from every registration will be donated PRIDEVMC, an organization that supports the LGBTQ+ veterinary community by empowering them to embrace wellbeing by being their authentic selves.

“We are facing unprecedented mental health challenges in the veterinary profession, and our LGBTQ+ veterinary colleagues need our unwavering support as many states challenge their basic rights as human beings.” said Relief Rover Chief Running Officer, Dr. Juli Goldstein

Registrants also have the opportunity to make additional donations to NOMV and Stryder Cancer Foundation.

Participants are encouraged to complete the virtual race during a one-week window from June 20 – 26. However, they can run or walk the 5K anytime.

Participants are encouraged to train with friends, form teams, run with their dogs, and share their results and experiences via social media. (Use hashtags #runvetrun, #irunforpridevmc, and #reliefrover5K. Special bone shaped race bibs are available for canine participants.
